This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. * The Old, old, very old man: or, the age and long life of Thomas Par, the son of John Parr of Winnington in the parish of Alderbury . . . who was borne in the raigne of King Edward the Fourth, in the yeare 1483. Hee lived 152 yeares, nine months and odd dayes . . . (Frontispiece.) [First ed.] 4to. Lond. 1635. 9742

* Drinke and welcome: or the famous historie of the most part of drinks, in use now in the kingdomes of Great Brittaine and Ireland; with an especiall declaration of the potency, vertue, and operation of our English ale, With a description of all sorts of waters, from the ocean sea, to the teares of a woman . . . [Original ed.] 4to. Lond. 1637. 9743

* A swarme of sectaries, and schismatiques: wherein is discovered the strange preaching (or prating) of such as are by their trades coblers, tinkers, pedlers, weavers, sow-gelders, and Chymney-sweepers . . . Printed luckily, and may be read unhappily, betwixt hawke and buzzard. (Woodcut of Sam. How the Cobler). [Original ed.] 4to. (Lond). 1641. 9744

* A Reply as true as steele, to a rusty, rayling, ridiculous, lying, libell; which was lately written by an impudent unsoder'd Ironmonger [Henry Walker] and called by the name of An Answer to a foolish pamphlet entituled, A Swarme of Sectaries and Schismatiques. (Woodcut on title.) [Original ed.] 4to. (Lond.) 1641. 9745

* A Pedlar and a Romish Priest in a very hot discourse full of mirth, truth, wit, folly, and plain-dealing. [First ed.] 4to. (Lond.) 1641. 9746

An Apology for private preaching. In which those formes are warranted, or rather justified, which the malignant sect contemne, and daily by prophane pamphlets make ridiculous . . . Whereunto is annexed . . . the spirituall postures, alluding to that of musket and pike. By T. I. [Original ed.] 4to. (Lond.) 1642. 9747

Mad Fashions, od fashions, all out of fashions, or, the emblems of these distracted times. (Woodcut.) [Original ed.] 4to. Lond. 1642. 9748

An humble desired union betweene prerogative and priviledge. Shewing, that if one draw too hard one way, and the other another, the whole common-wealth must be in danger to be pull'd in sunder. [Original ed.] 4to. Lond. 1642. 9749

John Taylors Manifestation, and iust vindication against Iosua Church his exclamation, with a true relation of Church his Generation, with his foule combination, with a pretence of reformation, of his wrong'd occupation, hath brought all out of fashion. [Original ed.] 4to. Lond. 1642. 9750

* A seasonable lecture or a most learned oration: disburthened from Henry Walker, a most judicious quondam Iron-monger, a late pamphleteere and now (too late or too soone) a double diligent preacher. As it might be delivered in Hatcham Barne the thirtieth day of March last, stylo novo. Taken in short writing by Thorny Ailo . . . [Anon.] (Woodcut.) [Original ed.] 4to. Lond. 1642. 9751

To the Right Honorable Assembly . . . the Honorable House of Commons in Parliament: the humble petition of the antient overseers, rulers, and assistants of the Company of Watermen. Wherein is shewed, how intollerably they have been abused and slandered, with false accusations, by divers refractory and abusive watermen, who have mislead many others to their faction . . . [Original ed.] 4to. Lond. 1642. 9752

Mercurius Aquaticus, or, the Water-Poets answer to all that hath or shall be writ by Mercurius Britanicus. [Anon.] [Original ed.] 4to. (Lond.) Printed in the Waine of the Moone . . . 1643. 9753

* Aqua-Musæ: or, Cacafogo Cacadæmon, Captain George Wither wrung in the withers. Being a short lashing satyre, wherein the juggling rebell is compendiously finely firked and jerked, for his late railing pamphlet against the king and state, called Campo-Musæ. [Original ed.] 4to. (Lond.) Printed in the fourth yeare of the Grand Rebellion. (1643.) 9754

The causes of the diseases and distempers of this kingdom; found by feeling of her pulse . . . The remedies are left to the skill and discretion of more able and learned physitians. [Original ed.] 4to. n. p. 1645. 9755
